Outcome/Report of the activity: In a recent event organized a classroom literary event based on the short story “Jammi” written by Dr. Yashoda Reddy under the supervision of Dr. N. Surya Kanthi. The event was held on 21/08/2025 with the active participation of students and faculty members. The main objective of this program was to introduce students to modern Telugu short stories and to develop critical appreciation skills.

The event began with an introduction of the writer, Dr. Yashoda Reddy, who is known for her sensitive portrayal of human values and realistic situations. The story “Jammi” was read and explained in detail. The central theme of the story highlights the symbolic importance of the Jammi, representing tradition, culture, and moral values. Through simple narration, the author conveys how age-old customs and beliefs strengthen family and social harmony.

Following the reading, students shared their interpretations and discussed the relevance of the story in the present-day context. They reflected on the cultural significance of the Jammi, especially during festivals like Vijayadashami, and how literature helps in preserving such traditions.

Teachers guided the discussion and emphasized the message of respecting traditions while adapting to modern life. The event concluded with a vote of thanks. Overall, the “Jammi” story event was highly informative and inspiring, enriching the students with literary appreciation as well as cultural values.
