Activity Category: IIC Calendar/MIC Driven/Self Driven/Celebration

Theme: Class event

Venue: Ground floor SV hall, KMICS campus

Organised by: Dept of Language

Budget: Nil

Outcome/Report of the activity: KMICS College proudly celebrated The Department of languages organized a programme on the occasion of Mother Language Day on 21th February in the college. The main objective of the programme was to create awareness among students about the importance of our mother tongue and to encourage them to respect and preserve their language.

As part of the programme, students actively participated and presented PowerPoint Presentations (PPT) on various topics related to the importance, history, and significance of the mother language. The presentations reflected the students' understanding and appreciation of linguistic heritage.

The programme was very informative and engaging. Students expressed their thoughts about the value of the mother language in culture, communication, and identity. The activity helped students improve their presentation skills and develop a deeper respect for their native language.

Overall, the programme was conducted successfully with enthusiastic participation from the students.

Key Highlights:

- Students actively participated and presented PowerPoint presentations on the importance of the mother language.
- The programme created awareness among students about the value of the mother tongue.
- Students improved their presentation and communication skills through the activity.
