Outcome/Report of the activity: KMICS College proudly celebrated Telangana Bhasha Dinotsavam under the guidance of Mrs. Suryakanthi to honor the richness and heritage of the Telugu language. The program began with a warm welcome to the distinguished chief guest Dr. Ch. Lakshmana Chakravarthy, whose inspiring address highlighted the historical depth and cultural beauty of Telangana’s linguistic traditions. Our respected Principal Mrs. V. Santhi graced the occasion and encouraged students to preserve and promote their mother tongue in everyday life. Students presented traditional songs, poems, and speeches showcasing the elegance of Telugu, while faculty members shared insights into the evolution of the language and its importance in modern society. The event fostered a strong sense of pride and belonging among all participants. The celebration concluded with heartfelt thanks to Mrs. Suryakanthi for her guidance and to the chief guest and principal for their motivating presence, making the day truly memorable for the KMICS community.
