26.02.2019 Sri T. Harihara Sarma Memorial Lecture on "The Need of English in Higher Education"

The Department of English successfully organized the Sri T. Harihara Sarma Memorial Lecture on 'The Need of English in Higher Education' on February 26, 2019, in the SV Hall. The lecture was a tribute to Sri T. Harihara Sarma, recognizing his contributions and impact. Dr. Brahmananda Chary, a retired principal from Vijay Nagar College of Commerce, was the esteemed resource person for the event. His extensive experience in the field of education and his insightful views on the significance of English in higher education made him an ideal speaker for the occasion.

Sri Sridhar Reddy, the Joint Secretary, and Sri L. Prabhakar Reddy, the Treasurer of KMES, were in attendance, underscoring the importance of the lecture. Mrs. Shailaja and Mrs. Padmaja, the daughters of the late Sri Harihara Sarma, also honored the event with their presence, adding a personal touch to the memorial lecture. The audience comprised primarily B.Com second-year students, who were eager to gain insights on the role of English in their academic and professional pursuits.

Overall, the Sri T. Harihara Sarma Memorial Lecture was a resounding success, fulfilling its objective of promoting the significance of English in higher education and honoring the legacy of Sri T. Harihara Sarma.
