On the eve of the Birth Anniversary of Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay, the NSS Unit of Keshav Memorial Institute of Commerce and Sciences (KMICS) organized a meaningful programme at the KMICS Seminar Hall to understand the meaning, significance, and enduring relevance of "Vande Mataram."

The programme commenced with a brief introduction highlighting the life and literary achievements of Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay, the author of the iconic patriotic song Vande Mataram. Students delivered inspiring speeches explaining the historical importance of Vande Mataram, its role in India's freedom movement, and the values of patriotism, unity, and national pride it continues to inspire.

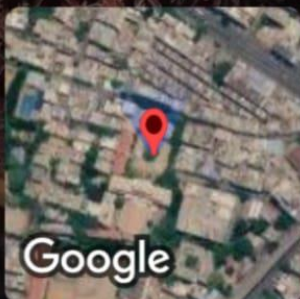

The speakers also discussed the remarkable literary contributions of Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay and emphasized how his writings awakened the spirit of nationalism among millions of Indians. The programme encouraged students to appreciate India's rich cultural and literary heritage while strengthening their sense of responsibility towards the nation.

A total of 60 students actively participated in the programme with great enthusiasm. The event concluded with a message by Mrs. Chadalavada Madhurima, NSS Programme Officer, who encouraged students to imbibe the ideals of patriotism, integrity, and service to the nation in their daily lives. The programme was a great success and effectively promoted national pride and awareness among the participants.
