

Date: 31st August

Time: 1:30 PM

Venue: SV Hall

Introduction: The NSS selection drive was held on 31st August at 1:30 PM in SV Hall to recruit new volunteers for the upcoming term. The process was structured in two rounds to ensure a comprehensive evaluation of all candidates.

Event Details:

- Date and Time: 31st August, 1:30 PM
- Venue: SV Hall
- Purpose: Recruitment of new NSS volunteers

Selection Process:

1. First Round: Profiling

- Conducted by: Existing NSS Volunteers
- Description: In this initial round, the profiling of candidates was carried out by current NSS volunteers. This phase involved assessing candidates' basic qualifications and initial suitability for the program.

2. Second Round: Final Selection

- Conducted by: Faculty and NSS Committee Members
- Description: Following the profiling, a detailed evaluation was conducted by faculty members and committee members. This round included interviews and discussions to select the most suitable candidates.

Outcome:

- Total Volunteers Selected: 125

Director's Appreciation: Our Director appreciated the team members for their dedication and efficient execution of the selection process. Their efforts in both profiling and final selection were commended for ensuring a high-quality recruitment of new volunteers.

Conclusion: The NSS selection drive successfully identified and recruited 125 enthusiastic and committed volunteers. The organized two-round process ensured a thorough and fair evaluation. We look forward to the active participation of the new volunteers in upcoming NSS activities.

Acknowledgements: Special thanks to the existing NSS volunteers, faculty members, and committee members for their invaluable contributions.

