Report Orientation on Conference of People (CoP-5), UNFCCC COP30 on Climate Change and Sustainability by IQAC

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Keshav Memorial Institute of Commerce and Sciences (KMICS), in collaboration with the Council for Green Revolution (CGR), organized an orientation on the Conference of People (CoP-5) as part of the UNFCCC COP30 initiative on Climate Change and Sustainability. The session was graced by Mrs. K. Leela Laxma Reddy, President of CGR and a renowned environmentalist, who delivered an impactful message emphasizing collective responsibility, youth participation, and the urgency of sustainable action. Principal Mrs. V. Santhi inspired the gathering and led faculty and students in a pledge to preserve greenery and protect the environment, symbolizing KMICS's strong commitment to eco-conscious living. The event stood out for its zero-waste and plastic-free practices, including digital displays, steel glasses, sapling tokens, and a plantation drive promoting sustainability. Participants also adopted carpooling to minimize emissions. The program successfully enhanced climate awareness and showcased KMICS's leadership in advancing the Sustainable Development Goal (SDG 13: Climate Action). Total Participants: Students – 60 | Staff – 60.
